Background/Supporting Information

By MN Statutes 423B.05 and 423C.03, the City Council appoints two Trustees to the Minneapolis Police Relief Association (MPRA) and two Trustees to the Minneapolis Firefighters Relief Association (MFRA). The current two-year terms for both associations expire on December 31, 2002.

The Minneapolis Police Relief Association Trustees are Scott Renne, the City Assessor, and Rebecca Law, a Management Analyst in the Finance Department. Both are willing to accept reappointment.

Currently, both of the Trustee positions for Minneapolis Firefighters Relief Association are vacant because the appointees, Lori Economy-Scholler and Michael Hagerty, have each resigned their City positions. Council Member Lane and Health Commissioner Doth have each agreed to serve the remainder of the current term in addition to the full term commencing January 1, 2003.
